

SORDO BAROLO DOCG VILLERO 2015

97 POINTS HUONHOOKE

Some camphor or mint aromas at first, which became less evident amidst the complexity of the bouquet. Dried rose petals and musk. Hauntingly perfumed. The tannins are assertive and firm, with a slightly stern edge, but the wine is excellent all round. A magnificent but more tightly held style, compact and full of tension. (The price reflects very small volume and the fame of the cru. From Castiglione Falletto)
